Foreword

Our heritage is this stately building from which many memories are formed. Through the doors of Classen High School we start on a road to the future. Our Heritage is our beginning, but Our Beginning also consists of our plans for the future.

We have all entered these doors with the thought of our beginning, but as Seniors we leave these same doors and our beginning starts a new life.

We will always be conscious of our heritage, yet we will never forget our dreams of the future, and all our years of learning will bridge the gap between as she arrives from Rochdale, England

Jo receives a hearty welcome.

A teddy bear with a passport?

"Henry VIII was English?"

"Oh, no! There's that photographer again!"

"If you step on my toes one more time . . ."

"I love school and life here. Everyone is so friendly and kind that I felt at home immediately. Many things are very new and different, especially football. The spirit of the school and the loyalty of the students are wonderful. I am enjoying my year and I am very grateful to everyone for doing so much to bring me here."

DR. JACK F. PARKER
Superintendent

The men and women who make the major decisions in the Oklahoma City School System are the hard-working members of the Board of Education, headed by Dr. Jack F. Parker.

These people take much time out of their regular duties to improve educational methods and to assist teachers through workshops and other special programs. The youth of the Oklahoma City Public Schools should be grateful to these people who work to better our school system.

Board of Education

TO GRADUATING SENIORS

All of us who are part of education today are proud of its achievements. Never before has education been called upon to play such an important role, not only for the sake of you graduates, but for society as a whole.

You students will be a part of many startling changes in educational approaches, understandings, and techniques.

Many of you will enter college, others will enter the business world, but regardless of your choice, you will be sharing new ideas, gaining new insights, and exhibiting new enthusiasms. This indeed should be a challenge to each of you.

Office Crew

The many responsibilities of the school could not be met without the smooth and efficient managing done by our office staff. The kindness and understanding of all the office personnel are of great assistance to the student body.

Recall to yourself the many times you have gone into the office, maybe to buy a lock or ticket from Mrs. Busby. Perhaps you came in late and needed an admit. Maybe you were called down for some misdeed. Behind-the-scene operations are a vital part of the school, and our staff has managed them well this year.

Counselors

MISS FREDA O'NEAL

Counselor, Grades 9 and 10

A student's foundation for learning is established at Classen High School. However, this feat would be next to impossible without the aid of our counselors.

These counselors' jobs do not end with the ringing of the bell for dismissal at 3:30. They take a little piece of Classen High School home with them each night and into their lives.

Library

MISS ETALEA UNFERTH

Librarian

Our library at Classen is headed by Miss Etalea Unferth who is assisted by our library clerk, Mrs. Marjorie Reynolds. If a student needs help in finding a book, a student librarian is always on hand.

While visiting our library, remember this old Chinese proverb . . .

"To be fond of learning is to be at the gateway of knowledge."

And where else can one increase his knowledge if not in the library at Classen?

Clinic Aids the Ailing

The clinic is one of the busiest places inside Classen. Mrs. Greer is ready and alert in giving assistance, whether the student has a headache or a broken bone. Mrs. Greer's day would be more difficult if it weren't for her clinic aides. These aides are taught first aid procedures and prove very helpful in giving medication. The clinic is always open and there is always someone to take care of small or great emergencies.

Thirty years from now, middle-agers will proudly display their battered 1966 Orbits to their own space-age teenagers.

Who will ever forget the ecstasy of Classen students after the Holdenville game? Or the day the senior girls wore granny dresses? Or when Classen's brand new activity bus broke down the first time it was driven?

Remembrances of these and other things are captured in the 1966 Orbit prepared by 18 juniors and seniors under the supervision of Mrs. Sibyl Tilsner.

These students conducted sales drives, staged two assemblies, and supervised the Orbit queen election.

Mrs. Tilsner surveys the work of Lynda Robinson, Orbit editor, and Doris Perry, business manager.

Sherry Shuffield, Dana Pitts, Donna Rowlan, Toni Friedman, Sherry Chastain, and Pat Bellmon investigate old Orbits.

English Is Essential

Good English is essential to all students. While at Classen, students further their knowledge of grammar and literature. By studying their own language and the writings of great authors, they become more appreciative of literature. Book reports, themes, and essays help a student express his own ideas.

Classen's English teachers are among the finest. They have dedicated themselves to helping students acquire a better understanding of the English language. These teachers have helped students earn honors in many fields of writing. We are very proud of our English department and extend a special "thanks" to all our English teachers at Classen.

Open the Door of Discovery Through Science

MR. DENNIS FREY
BS, OSU
Department Head

With the increasing importance of science in today's world, students at Classen have many opportunities to explore new fields in science.

The science department offers Biology, Physiology, Physics, Physical Sciences, Chemistry, and Science Seminar.

Today's scientific discoveries will be commonplace in tomorrow's world.

History Is in the Making

MRS. ESTELLA STINSON
BA, Central State
Department Head

History repeats itself year after year, and this year at Classen is no exception. Besides the required Scientific Geography, Oklahoma History, and American History, students may venture further into the world's problems by studying World History, Psychology, and Sociology. Our history teachers do more than is required of them by helping the students to be better prepared to face the world.

Many take advantage of these courses in order to be able to learn about their forefathers and to be able to put this knowledge to good use as they pass through the doors of Classen to a more complex world.

Business Is Definitely

Business is the world's greatest employer. The young person looking for a career in business has an excellent opportunity to develop his skills at Classen.

Taking advantage of such courses as Typing, Shorthand, Transcription, Bookkeeping, Business Machines, General Business, or Business Arithmetic is a significant step for the person who desires to reach the top in any field of business activity.

Members of the Business Department are well-qualified to aid each student in his daily war against time and error.

Languages Increase Understanding

People today do more traveling to other countries than ever before; therefore, the knowledge of languages is becoming more useful every year.

Classen offers beginning and advanced courses in three languages.

Mrs. Bledsoe, the department head, instructs Latin; Mrs. Roach guides the French students; and Mrs. Katkin, new to Classen, teaches Spanish.

Home Economics is essential in planning a future as a housewife. It gives a basic understanding of family life in the home. The girls can practice skills which will be used every day in their home life. Practicing their roles as homemakers, they learn everything from cooking and sewing to managing a household.

A new class in this department is General Economics. In this class, girls are prepared for marriage through various lectures given by Mrs. Preble and members of the class.

Thanks to Ford and Edison, the students at Classen are able to take courses in Driver Education and Electronics. The students in Driver Education learn everything from the location of the distributor to the proper way to drive during rush hours. They learn to place a higher value on safe driving.

Classen's electricians are preparing for future jobs in the fields of electricity and technology. The two-hour course in electronics teaches the student the basic fundamentals of this field. His training in electronics is also economical—he doesn't have to pay a television repairman.

Classen Builds Strong Minds, Strong Bodies

Classen teachers strive to develop Classen students into well-rounded citizens, both mentally and physically.

Taking care of the physical education part of the process are Miss Carolyn Snell and Mr. Harvey Tedford.

To achieve this end, Classen students are required to take one year of physical education in junior high and one year in senior high.

They are taught the fundamentals of baseball, basketball, swimming, volleyball, tumbling, trampoline, and modern dance.

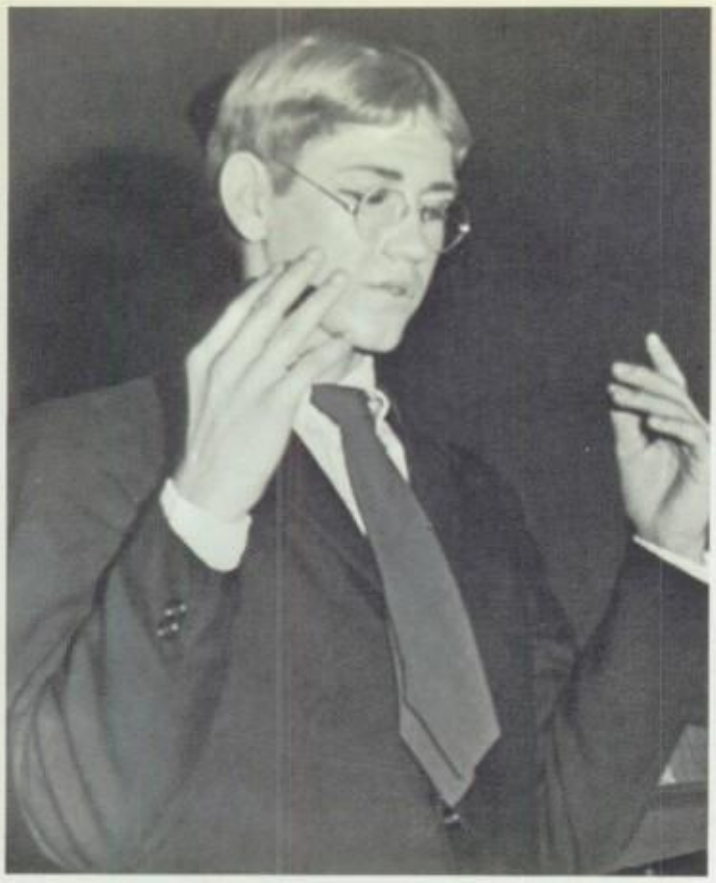
Our Town is a Hit!

Every year the Classen Drama Department presents a play. This year on December 8th and 9th, Thornton Wilder's Our Town was presented. It is a drama written about a small town and two families in it. It was under the direction of drama teacher, Marilyn Miller, and student director, Lonnie Jonte. The cast gave a tremendous performance, and received the congratulations of all.



You couldn't outdo that congregation if you tried!

Cindy Short played the party of Emily.

The Orchestra Swings With Strings, Winds, and Brass

Classen's orchestra has always been noted for its fine musical ability. We are privileged to have Miss Vivian Hays, who does a fine job of directing this outstanding group. Within the group are active and ambitious students who work together as a team to present fine performances for the public as well as for the student body.

Because of class conflicts, the full orchestra was able to meet only one or two mornings a week; however, they turned out many fine programs.

The Junior High Orchestra has worked hard this year to contribute its share to Classen's Music Department. They played for the Junior High Awards Assembly and attended many contests. In the spring certain players who had previously auditioned were chosen to play in the All-City Junior High Orchestra Festival.

The Intermediate Orchestra is a training course to prepare beginning students to play in concerts.

The members consist of students from all the high schools and their functions are to usher at the concerts and help sell the season tickets to the Oklahoma City Symphony.

The orchestra would not be complete without the section leaders, shown below.

Section Leaders, shown with Miss Hays, are Mimi Dye, Concertmaster; Margaret Schottstaedt, Second Violin; Paul Wickberg, Viola; Kenneth Moore, Cello; Jeff Kamp, Bass.

Officers: Anita Kirkland, President, Mike Leeper, Vice President, and Peggy Green, Secretary-Treasurer.

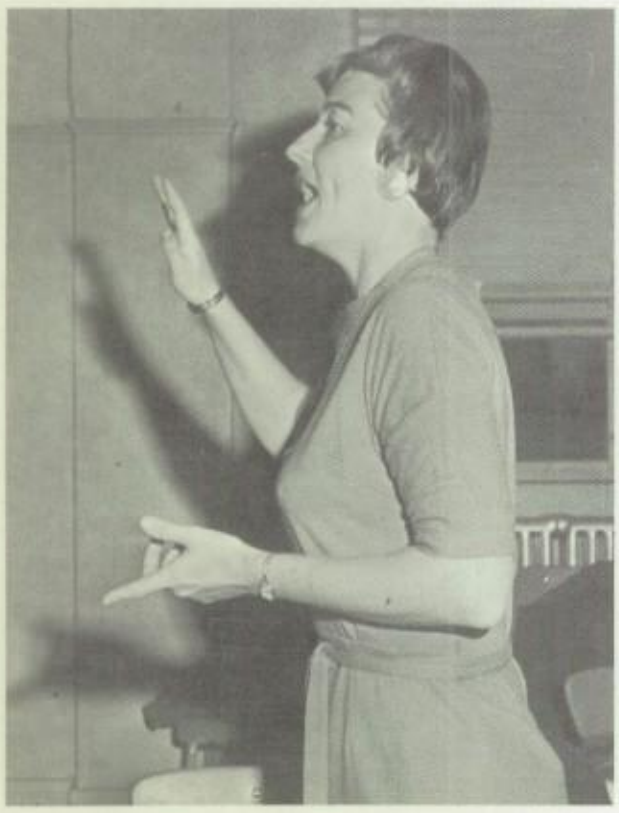
The Classen Vocal Department has always been one of the most outstanding choral groups in our state. Under the leadership of Mrs. Crowe, the Classen Vocal Department has far exceeded the highest expectations of our fine school.

The Classen Choir and the Girls' Glee Club participate annually in district and state contests, where they have consistently received the highest ratings.

Both the Girls' Glee Club and the Choir added to the Christmas spirit by singing carols at Shepherd Mall this year.

Sing a song of excellence.



"M-I-C, K-E-Y M-O-U-S-E!"

Every year the Classen Choir elects officers. Jim Maryott, President; Jan Elrod, Vice President; Donna Stotts, Secretary; and Sherry Chastain, Treasurer, combine their abilities to serve the 1965-66 Choir.

The notes that have floated from Classen this year have contained the fine quality of music which the band produces. Participating in pep assemblies, concerts, and games, the band has expressed much enthusiasm for Classen throughout the entire year.

Under the direction of Mr. Charles Early, the band's major performance is the Fine Arts Program presentation in May. The band, along with the rest of the Music Department, helped to bring musical entertainment to Classen and its patrons through this presentation.

JOHN COYLE
PRESIDENT

The Student Council is the organization at Classen which is responsible to the student body as a whole. Elected representatives bring the spirit, thoughts, and ideas of students to council meetings and take plans for projects and activities back to homerooms. The success of these projects and activities depends on the amount of effort expended by each student toward their completion.

Although the primary function of the school lies in the academic field, other areas must be considered in order to achieve total development of each student. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to carry out investigation and action to solve the problems facing the student body and to suggest constructive goals toward which we should strive. In council meetings matters involving coordination of club activities, planning of assemblies, and improvement of the school building are considered.

The functions of the Student Council are not, however, limited to the present. Students can effectively use this organization as a means of preparation for good citizenship. Although the representatives receive experience in carrying on meetings and discussing business, each student may learn, through the Council, to make effective use of the democratic process. The situation faced by the Student Council is the same as that presented to any democratic organization: its effectiveness is dependent upon the willingness of its members to offer suggestions and work to carry them out. The Student Council owes its success to the interest and initiative of the representatives and, indeed, to the entire student body.

One of the most inspiring assemblies of the year was the Patriotism Assembly presented by the Student Council. The climax of the assembly came with the presentation of the American flag to the student body.

BOB COOKE
President

The purpose of the Junior High Student Council is to give the junior high student body a deeper understanding of democratic principles and the American way of life. The Junior High Student Council also gives the training necessary for the future senior high leaders. Representatives from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades form this Council.

This year the Council helped sponsor the magazine drive and members also sold Christmas cards during Christmas. The big social event of the year was the Christmas dance.

SUSIE CHITWOOD
Head Cheerleader

They're number one in our great state,
And in the nation, too.
They've gone from here to Florida
And done it all for you.
They've raised our spirit and cheered
Their best in wind and sleet and rain,
And you can bet they'll all be there
To help us win our game.
To Susie, Coby, Sally, and Bev,
Just half of that wonderful eight,
And Cricket, MaryAnn, Sydney, and Cathie,
We know they're all just great.
To the spirit of Classen High School,
We know you've always been true,
And now it's our turn, cheerleaders,
To give some thanks to you.

The Tri-C's have worked hard this year to promote spirit. They have taken time and effort to prepare themselves to be spirit-minded students and cheerleaders.

The club provides cheerleaders for the B-squad teams. This year two excellent sets were chosen, and one group went to Norman State Clinic and received a superior rating.

The outstanding eight serve as the officers of the club with Susie Chitwood acting as president.

Key Club

The Key Club works hard to promote the development of good citizenship at Classen. The club has worked on such worthy projects as "Toys for Tots," United Appeal, and helping a needy family at Christmastime. The biggest project the Key Club is sponsoring this year is helping to raise funds to build a planter in front of the school.

Key Club officers this year are Tom Shurley, Charlie Smith, Mr. Fleet, sponsor; Don Cooke, Mr. Thurman, sponsor; and Max Mayfield.

National Honor Society

Students who have attained a 3.5 grade average and the approval of the faculty, and who have the highest standards in character, leadership, scholarship, and service are honored as members of the National Honor Society. Classen is one of the few schools which emphasizes the formalities of the initiation ceremonies.

This year, as in previous years, members and the parents of the initiates were invited to attend a reception following the ceremony. The organization's sponsor, Mrs. Haney, has done much to uphold another Classen tradition.

OFFICERS: Janet Dyk, Treasurer; Tom Shurley, Vice President; Dede Roach, Secretary; Joe McDonald, President.

Classen's Spanish Honor Society is the Cervantes Chapter of the national organization, La Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica. The purpose of the club is to honor Spanish students of high achievement and to promote the continued study of the language. Each year the club has a formal initiation ceremony and engages in various social and educational activities. Mrs. Sondra Katkin sponsors the club.

As a member of the National Safety Council, Classen's organization has been represented extremely well. In order for the Safety Council to represent the school, it must have outstanding members who are willing to work and devote time for their school.

The Safety Council has elected Shirley Dyer as the most valuable member of the year. She has attended all conventions for the last six years. The Safety Council wishes to commend her for a job well done.

Charlie Brown no longer says, "Good grief!" according to members of Classen's Junior Classical League, sponsored by Mrs. Judy Bledsoe. He sighs the Latin version, "Bonus dolor!"

Besides translating their favorite comic strips, JCL members sold confetti at football games. They also attended a state planning committee in Tulsa and the state meeting in Norman.

At the state convention several members ran for "puer notissimus" and "puella notissima" (most outstanding girl and boy JCL members) for the state of Oklahoma.

At press time, the club was considering nominating a Classen student for a JCL state office.

N.F.L.

The National Forensic League (shown above) is an honorary organization composed of students who participate in speech activities. Membership is based on a point system, and the students earn points by attending various contests.

The members attend about ten contests every year. They work hard all year to attend the state N.F.L. contest in the spring.

Thespians

The Thespian group is composed of students who are interested in acting. These students handle many important responsibilities such as lighting, sets, costumes, make-up, and other duties connected with the production of an all-school play.

In addition to the production of the school play, Thespians sponsor a banquet at the end of the year when awards are given to the best actor and actress.

F.T.A.

Future Teachers of America is composed of junior and senior high students. Some of their projects include a tea given for the student teachers in April, participation in the Emerson Project, and the state meeting held in Stillwater in April.

Youth of God

The Youth of God is a Christian organization and any student who is interested is eligible for membership.

Preparing the morning devotions is the club's main function, but the group also sponsors the Christmas and Easter services every year in the auditorium.

This year approximately twenty-eight bags of needed materials and toys were sent to the children in Viet Nam by Classen's Red Cross Chapter. Another project is to supply a gift chest of similar items which will be sent to a disaster area. The members of this voluntary service organization, sponsored by Mrs. Nichols, are chosen from each homeroom.

Have you ever wondered who decorated the halls and rooms of Classen before the approaching holidays? Art Nouveau is the service club which is responsible for these added touches of ornamentation. The club, sponsored by Mrs. Pat Merchant, also visits art museums and galleries throughout the year.

Workers at Page are Donna Rowlan, Gayle Self, Toni Friedman, Kay Anspaugh, Carol Belcher, Marilyn Wallace, Marsha Pool, Mike Pope.

Emerson Project

Helping others? This seems to be what Classen students enjoy doing. Emerson Project workers devote their time and talents for the supervision of children at Page and Eugene Field Grade Schools. Informal sessions of arts and crafts, drama and storytelling, physical education, and music are offered to supplement the education of these children. Miss Reed, the sponsor, supervises in these various areas. The purpose of this city-wide program is to help prevent high school dropouts and to promote better interracial relations.

Paula Hendrix, what kind of story are you telling now?

Classen gridder Harvey Edwards and Lonnie Jonte take time out to teach arts and crafts.

Senior Council Heads

The Senior Council is formed of two representatives from each homeroom and the officers. These seniors form the recommending body of the senior class. These are the students who led the rest of the class and who did a big part of the work.

The senior class, with the leadership of the council and the officers, has been very active this year. Part of this year's treasury went to the building of the planter in front of the school. Classen will long remember the Class of '66 for this project, and for the greenery on the stage which has added much to Classen's auditorium.

Sparkling,

Majestic,

Coby Collins was announced as the 1966 Orbit Queen during the variety show, "Classen in Review." Coby has been very active during her years at Classen. As a member of the Comes Pep Club for three years and an all-school cheerleader for two years, Coby has done much to promote school spirit. This year she was Vice President of the Youth of God and was also a Senior Council Representative.

The Spirit of the Gold

Coaches Gerald McPhail and Dennis Huggins

This year the Classen team can be praised for their fine efforts game after game. These efforts were best demonstrated in the game against Holdenville in which Classen achieved a victory of 13 to 7.

The seniors this year did a fine job, while the underclassmen showed good possibilities for the makings of an excellent season next year.

Wrestlers Boost Comet Pride

The Classen wrestlers showed outstanding advancement and achievement this year.

As always, Classen ranked high in the city, led by seniors Bill Siemens and James McQuagge, who placed first in conference.

Mr. Dunaway coached the boys to a peak of physical fitness. Their remarkable accomplishments were a result of many long, hard hours of work.

Many congratulations go to the boys for a job well done.

"He just won't move, Coach."

"One, two, cha cha cha."

Comets Prove Unsinkable

Each year Classen is represented by excellent swimmers. Our swimming team has participated in all the major events and has scored well.

Coach Thurman did a fine job in training the swimmers to supreme endurance and physical condition.

The swimmers Benny Pierpont, Tom Puckett, Mike Shipley, and Lloyd Elliott should be given special recognition because they scored high and placed in several events.

Track Team Gets Set . . .

for Flying Start

Brett Moon and Howard McCracken are developing into fine quarter-milers, and the two-mile relay team consists of Jack Hiatt, James Noble, Roy Wallace, and Larry Williams. Kim Burleson and Don Weir picked up points in highjumping and broadjumping. The discus was tossed by Alan Hill, and the shot by Phil Owens and Rocky Bates.

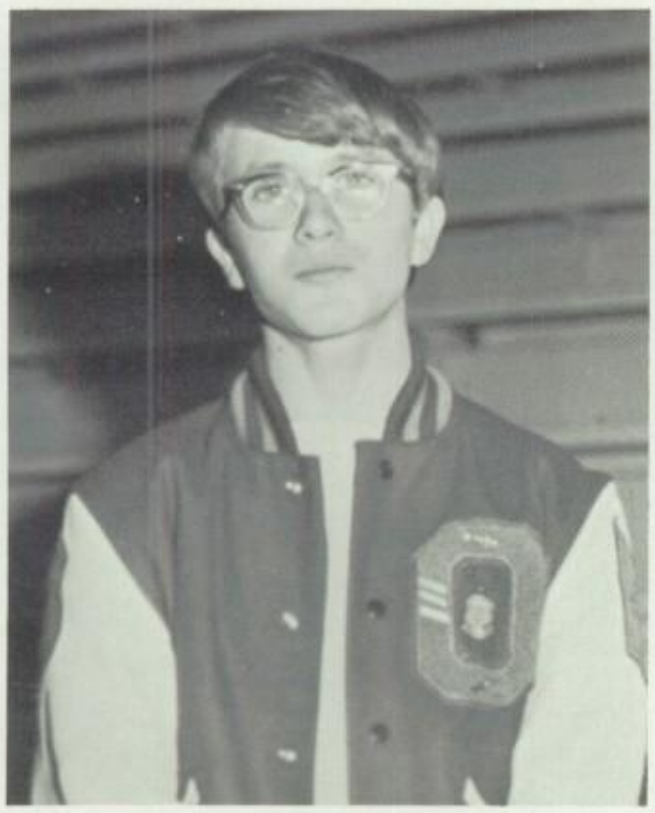
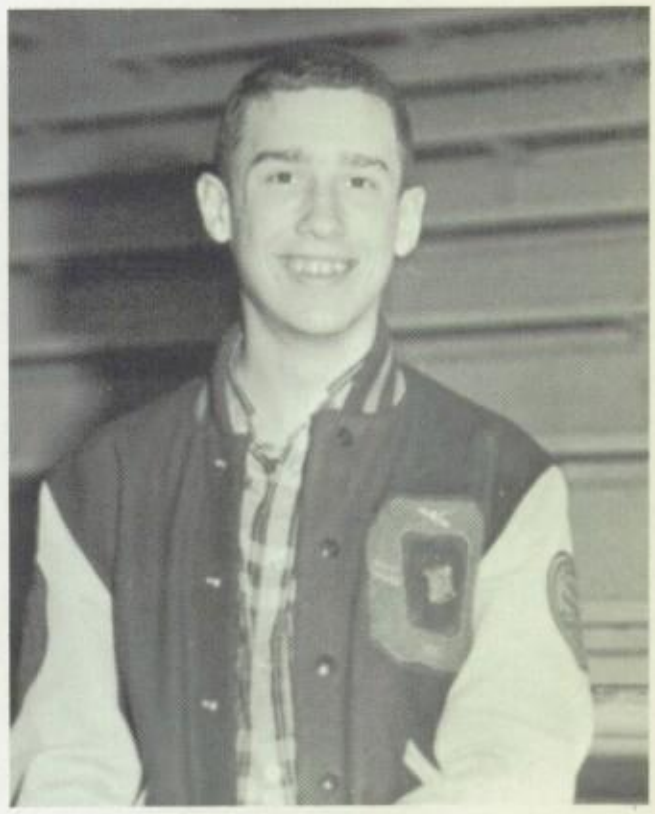
Roadrunners Overcome Competition

Our cross-country team took second in conference this year with a team comprised mainly of sophomores. This seems to indicate a good future for our cross-country team. Those lettering this year are Jack Hiatt, John Hite, Fred Miller, Brett Moon, Pat Moon, James Noble, and Dee Simpson.



Brett Moon placed tenth in state.



Fred Miller placed eighth in state and ninth in conference.

Golfers Tee Off!

DON COOKE

BILL MILLER

Classen can be very proud of its golf team. If Classen students would take time out to look at our flashy golfers, they would find a well-organized and skilled team, coached by Mr. McPhail, whose own golf score is outstanding.

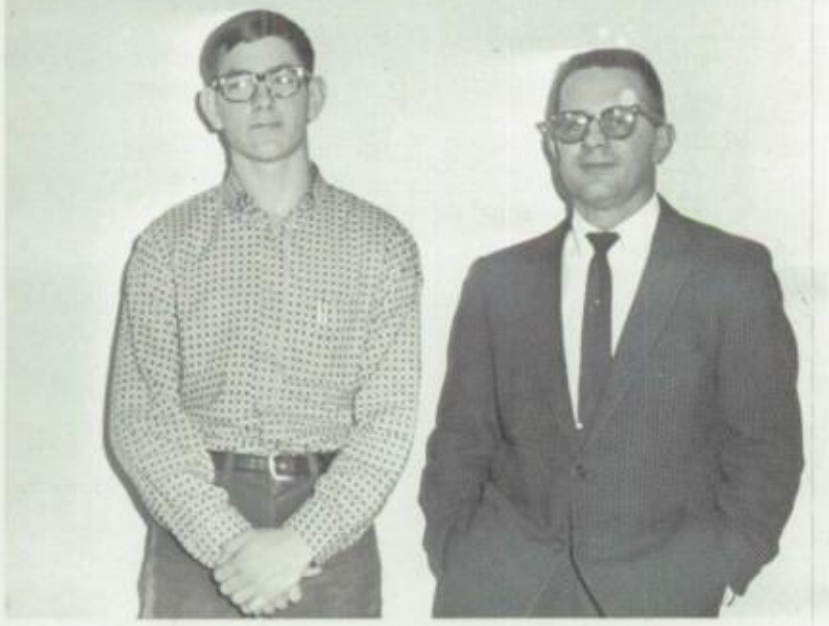
Ninth Grade



Mr. Dunaway poses with Clifford Edwards, who proved to be the most outstanding player this year.

Junior Comets

Classen can be very proud of its Junior Comets. Out of nine games, they won four and lost five.

Coach Dunaway and Coach Thurman deserve a great amount of recognition for their excellent training of our junior pros.

Because of the Comets' fine actions and new skills, they can look forward to winning honors when they enter high school.

Seventh and Eighth

Row 1: D. Case, G. Oakes, C. Carter, B. Claybaugh, D. Tarrant, J. Asbury. Row 2: P. Giles, R. McAuliffe, W. Schapansky, D. Daviee, S. Bryan, P. Calvi. Row 3: O. Brown, R. Collum, G. Brunken, L. Junior Comets Take Third in State

Winscott brings ball up against Harding.

It looks like a basket by Savely.

Dick Miller goes high for tip off.

Our team makes another basket.

Winscott shoots.

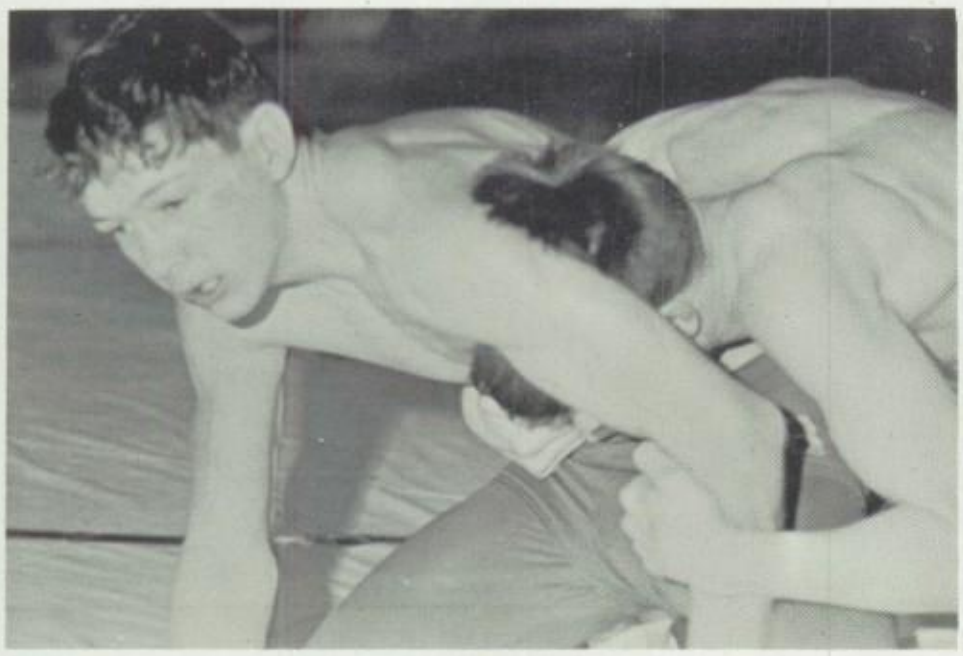
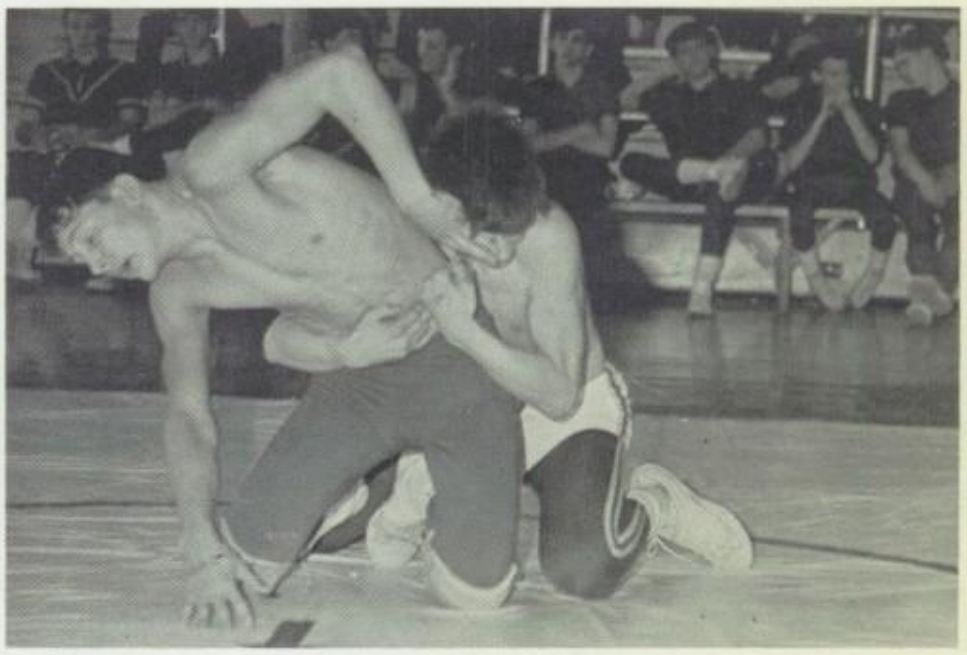
Wrestlers Show Skills



Clifford Manning is trying to escape.



Here he is attempting to stand.

Finally he makes it to throw his opponent into a hold.

Our boys show good sportsmanship.

Acknowledgment

Our Heritage is a lasting thing and now, so is your 1966 Orbit. Long, hard hours of work have gone into this book and the members of the 1966 Orbit staff hope that your Orbit will contain many cherished memories.

Credit should be given to the staff members who worked on this book. They are Pat Bellmon, Sherry Chastain, Randy Cook, Vana Keller, Pam Melton, Lavonna Niblett, Donna Rowlan, Sherry Shuffield, and Neta Stephenson, seniors; and Dennis Dunham, Toni Friedman, Dana Pitts, Char Ogilvie, and Carolyn Watson, juniors. Also, lots of thanks for the photography of Al Flournoy and Larry Hicks. Although he joined the staff late, Larry proved to be a great asset. Wagner Studio, too, deserves much credit for the fine pictures they provided for the 1966 Orbit. Of course, you could not have a yearbook without a publishing company and Taylor Publishing Company receives our gratitude for their counseling and guidance. Lu Carroll deserves a great big thanks for all the art work she contributed to our book. Many thanks to the faculty, Mr. Risdon and Mr. Estes for their patience. To Doris Perry, Business Manager, I am indeed grateful. It was her unceasing effort that made the Orbit sales succeed. And to Mrs. Tilsner, our sponsor, a lasting indebtedness, for without her drive, no one would have made it.

And now we, the staff of the 1966 Orbit, give you your book and hope that it will record a part of Our Beginning.
